PACIFIC YEARLY MEETING OF THE RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

VOLUME 39, NUMBER 2 OCTOBER, 1970

New Life Styles in Meeting

Those who weren't there will be surprised that more than 100 persons gathered in a special interest group at Pacific Yearly Meeting this year to discuss New Life Styles relating to a Collapsing Civilization. Out of three days extended discussions the group agreed to report to Pacific Yearly Meeting members and affiliates through the pages of the Bulletin all experiments and some discussion of New Life Styles as these may be relevant to or sponsored by Monthly Meetings. Your reports are hereby invited.

What we are all seeking is no secret: closeness, love, community, an end to alienation.

The old life style into which we are locked, mind and body, includes the individual competitive struggle, secrecy, nuclear families, serial polygamy, lightly worn meetings for worship, standard middle-classitude, unlimited acquisition, struggle for history, and many other rigid ways of looking at life, supporting educational and political institutions to which no summary sentence can do justice. Some Friends propose to follow the Utopian tradition, and break free of these felt restrictions into self-sufficient rural communes. Others envision a closer knit urban coalition which will break selective bonds of repression, alienation and injustice within the culture. Reports of all efforts in any of these directions will be welcome here.

As Friends adopt and expand techniques for personal growth and communication, we are taking steps which make a new community or group life style possible.

Here are a few identifiable efforts that have come to my attention, which may be worth reporting:

- Quaker "dialogues" or listening groups.
- Dialogues for married couples.
- Training in nonviolent resolution of conflict. A report of the 6-week this-summer program run by AFSC-Pasadena will be welcome. A child of this program is being offered under AFSC-San Francisco auspices September 11-16.
- Re-evaluation counseling as developed by Harvey Jackins in Seattle, and as reported by Ingeborg Snipes (Friends Journal, January 1, 1970.) Ian Thiermann told me last May that 60 people were involved in the Santa Monica meeting. Twenty Berkeley and Palo Alto members and friends started a course October 6.
- Groups of younger Friends in the East (members of A Quaker Action Group, in particular) have dismayed some older Friends by camping, eating, singing, and reveling in Meeting houses.
- I have no indications yet of a viable alternative to our economic mores emerging in Friends meetings. (Barbara Reynolds reports a tithing experiment in Friends Journal for May 15, 1970.)
- Criteria for communal success are neatly discussed by Rosabeth Kanter in Psychology Today, July 1970.

Pilgrimage

A Quaker Youth Pilgrimage in America is one of the new programs of Friends World Committee. From mid-July to mid-August 1971 thirty 'teen-age Friends will travel together from Indiana through Ohio to North Carolina, then up the Atlantic Coast to Boston.

En route they will visit Friends Meetings of all persuasions—pastoral and programmed, pastoral evangelical, Conservative unprogrammed, and unprogrammed liberal. They will learn about the most significant events and influential persons in the history of these Friends groups. But the Pilgrims will give most attention to present-day active witness and service of Friends whom they will visit.

Touring by chartered bus, the Quaker Youth Pilgrimage will include fourteen young Friends from Europe, an equal number from the United States and Canada, one each from Jamaica and Mexico. A married couple from Europe will accompany the Pilgrims in all their journey. And a single adult American Friend will assist them.

Levi Coffin and the underground railroad, Rufus King and other travelling ministers, Allen Jay and the rebuilding of wartorn southern communities, John Woolman and the testimony for a life of integrity, William Penn as an advocate of justice under the law, Mary Dyer and her witness for freedom of religion and of speech, and George Fox the radical Christian—these Quakers and their modern counterparts will be studied where possible, the Pilgrims will participate in work undertaken by Friends in the areas to be visited.

Young Friends currently in 11th or 12th Grade in school are invited to apply for the opportunity to participate in the 1971 Quaker Youth Pilgrimage in America. The fee for those selected will be $350 for the 30-day program. Applications must be submitted by December 31, 1970. Forms for application may be obtained by writing to Friends World Committee, 152-A North 15th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19102.

Mixed Feelings

I came away from Pacific Yearly Meeting with decidedly mixed feelings. The young are so alive! so aware of the moment! so serious! so vital!

But we, we Established Friends—are we also Establishment Friends? Do we really trust the witness of our silence? Do we recognize that silence makes us one-in-the-Lord, in life? Do we hold this silence in our depths as we move about in our daily lives—our meetings, our duties and our joys?

Yes, I came away from PYM this year with a sense of general surface contact. Friendly, good food, good company—each of us floating safely in an innertube of words and concepts which insulated us from more than casual contact with each other. And all around us the great ocean of life, its many dimensions waiting for our exploration . . . but the ocean of life demands swimmers. Water-wings, bolsters and innertubes, the restrictions and safeguards we so highly value—make swimming an impossibility, and so frightening! We have put our faith in plans, in good works, in forms and formulations—yes, even we, unprogrammed Quakers—instead of trusting the buoyancy of the Life Within, the Great Silence which sustains us.

Our young people look at us and are horrified! They see with eyes wide and clear. Let us wake up and carry the Lord into our every thought, our every breath, our every word, our every action! So may we become pathways or channels for his love to one another and thus to all men.

If the springs of our Society are choked with weeds, how can the waters run clear and cold and refreshing for mankind?

DISCIPLINES

Copies of the 1970 Annotated Interim Printing of the PYM Discipline are now available from the AFSC Book Room, 980 N. Fair Oaks Avenue, Pasadena, Calif. 91102, for $1.00, tax and postage included. This slightly updated printing of the current Discipline is not a new edition. It was prepared by the Discipline Committee when the supply of 1965 Disciplines became exhausted, and is intended to serve Friends until the new edition is completed, probably in 1973.

DEATHS

KATHERINE H. HORNER, beloved member of Tacoma Friends Meeting since 1960, died August 14 at the age of 92. She had been a faithful and generous member of the Meeting until her last illness. She was born in Tacoma to a pioneer family, attended school here and became a teacher. Later she operated a bookstore in Phoenix, Arizona. When joining Tacoma Meeting she told this story: she had recently lived for some years in Philadelphia, where she frequently had occasion to pass by Quaker cemeteries. She observed that all graves were marked with similar headstones—no ostentation with statuary and the like distinguishing some of the deceased above others. She therefore concluded that Quakers were demonstrated believers in equality, and therefore if she should decide to join any church it would be the Quakers. She is greatly missed by all who knew her. Katherine Horner was a great lover of nature. At her memorial service at Tacoma Meetinghouse, this Studdert-Kennedy poem was presented in her memory:

Not here for high and holy things
We render thanks to Thee,
But for the common things of earth:
The purple pageantry
Of dawning, and of dying day,
The splendor of the sea,
The royal robes of autumn moors,
The golden gates of spring,
The velvet of soft summer nights,
The silver glistering
Of all the million million stars,
The silent song they sing.

PERCY MILLARD DAWSON, M.D., died September 27, 1970, at the age of 97. He was a member of Palo Alto Friends Meeting since 1954. A physiologist, he taught sixteen years at the University of Wisconsin and wrote several books. He was a physical fitness enthusiast, exercised regularly and took weekly six to eight mile hikes from the age of 91 until early this summer.

ALICE MILLER. Members of the Los Angeles Friends Meeting held a Memorial Meeting Sunday, November 1 in the Meetinghouse for Alice Miller, who died October 16 after a short illness. Alice Miller was born August 15, 1875, in Clinton, Maine. After teaching school for a number of years, she married J. Calvin Miller and lived in Portland, Maine. In 1947, after the death of her husband, she moved to Los Angeles to be near her son Davis and was sharing a home with her sisters, Fannie Timberlake and Margaret Simkin, at the time of her death. Alice Miller had always been at the very heart of the Meeting and was held in deepest love by Friends who found great strength in her beautiful quotations from the Psalms, and deeply moving prayers during the Meeting for Worship. Her life has indeed been a kind and joyous reflection of that of God.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

WEDDINGS

GROSS-PHILBRICK. Sherry Philbrick and Bill Gross were married under the care of the Palo Alto Meeting on August 22, 1970, in the Valley United Presbyterian Church. It was held there because the Palo Alto Meetinghouse could not accommodate their many friends. As we meditated, we absorbed the beauty and peace of the redwood trees to be seen through the glass behind the rostrum.

CARSON-WILLARD Robert Carson and Katherine Willard, both of Eastside Meeting, were married under the care of that Meeting on September 25, 1970. They are living in Bellingham, Washington, where Robert is attending Western Washington State College.

QUAKERS — ON HOLDING HANDS

I touched a star,
Gently,
So as not to move it far.

I touched a flower,
Softly,
To know its warmth.

I touched a child,
Quietly.
He'll know I'm close.

I touched a man,
A mere brush.
We are one.
